Key Picks Ivan Lyddon Man of Month

Ivan Lyddon MISSOURIAN Editor is the November "Man of the Month." He was chosen by Blue Key for his contributions to this campus via his journalism work as well as his scholastic talents.

Lyddon, a junior from Stuart, Iowa, is serving as editor after two years work as a Staff photographer. He is a graduate of an accredited journalism school, and worked as a freelance and press photographer before entering NWMSC.

Majoring in English and minoring in sociology, Lyddon

plans to enter public-relations work or journalism after graduation. His hobbies are photography and listening to good music.

Recently, Lyddon was a student delegate to the National Press Photographers Association Conference held in Kansas City.

Mr. Donald F. Peel, advisor to the Missouriian, said of Lyddon's selection, "I am pleased to have him receive the 'Man of the Month' honor and think he is worthy of it. He is not only an able and courageous editor but an excellent scholar as well."

This article has been prepared and published without Lyddon's knowledge so the staff takes this space to say, "Congrats, Ivan."

Watch the Missouriian for the announcement of the January "Man of the Month."

Sue Crone Chosen Spirit of Xmas

Sue Crone was chosen as the "Spirit of Christmas" at the 18th annual presentation of the "Hanging of the Greens," Sunday, December 17.

Miss Crone was chosen from among the senior girls at Roberta Hall. The voting was done by all the young ladies residing there.

Because of the poor weather conditions the ceremony was open to the public. Normally, due to the small seating capacity of Roberta hall, only the girls' parents and the faculty are invited.

An open house was held in conjunction with the ceremony from 4-6:30 p.m. It is reported that a large crowd, consisting mainly of parents and college men, turned out for this part of the afternoon festivities.

St. Joe Residence Center To Register January 24

The NWMSC Residence Center will open in St. Joseph with registration on Jan. 24, 1962, at the St. Joseph Junior College. Classes will begin on Monday evening, January 29.

The program is open to any student with 45 semester hours or more. For courses numbered 200 or higher, 60 hours minimum is required.

Students may complete 30 hours of NWMSC residence credit at the Residence Center.

Two Institutions

Those students who have 45 semester hours from an accredited institution may enroll in the Residence Center at the time they are enrolled at the other institution, provided the total of semester hours does not exceed 16 from both enrollments.

Classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings in the St. Joseph Junior College Building.

The tentative offerings for the Spring Semester, 1962, will be: Mon., Wed., at 6 p.m.; Ed. 121, Adolescent Psychology (2 hours credit) and Eng. 132, American Literature of the Twentieth Century (2 hours credit); Mon., Wed., at 7 p.m.; Ed. 295, Introduction to Philosophy of Education (2 hours credit); Bus. 75, Intermediate Accounting (3 hours credit); Hist. 99, World History to 1650 (3 hours credit).

Instructors for the courses will be: Ed. 121, Dr. Willis McCann; Eng. 132, Mr. Dale Midland; Ed. 295, Mrs. Evelyn Swartz; Hist. 99, Dr. Harry Gailey.

It is necessary for a minimum of 12 students to be enrolled before the class will be offered.

Johnson Reviews 'Beatnik' Books

Book Club followed the "Beatnik" trend on December 18 when Bob Johnson reviewed four books by different Beatnik writers.

They were On The Road by John Kerouac, A Coney Island of the Mind by Lawrence Fellinghette, Gasoline by Gregory Corso, and Howl by Alan Ginsberg.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Lula Mae Sheetz. Refreshments were served.

Arrangements for membership were made at a previous meeting, and membership cards can now be obtained from Nancy Rinehart.

-HOUSING NOTICE

Those boys now living in approved housing who wish to move into the quads, contact the Housing Office.

H. T. Phillips, Ex-MSC Teacher, Dies in N. Mexico

Homer T. Phillips, formerly of Maryville, died early Monday at his home at Albuquerque, N. Mexico. A former teacher at Northwest State College, he formerly was head of the Horace Mann Laboratory School for about 20 years. He was a former chairman of the college education department and also a former chairman of the committee on recommendations on student placement. He came to Northwest State College in 1922. He went on diminishing service March 1, 1941, and on Sept. 1, 1941, retired from the committee on student placements. He has been on diminishing service, or one-fourth time, since 1941. In 1951 Mr. and Mrs. Phillips moved to Albuquerque, where Mrs. Phillips teaches.

His widow is the former Miss Louise Weller, formerly of Maitland.

The body will be brought to Missouri for services at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Atchison Funeral Home here. Burial will be in the Maitland Cemetery.

Medieval Music To Be Presented

"The Sound of the Middle Ages", a program of medieval music, will be presented in the union lounge tonight at 6:30 p.m.

The program is written and produced by two NWMSC students. Jeanie Morris and Rose Ann Gard are presenting the evening of entertainment as their semester project in Humanities I.

Included in the program will be a Gregorian chant, an organum, motets, a madrigal, a canon, a troubadour song, and an English ballad. Miss Gard and Miss Morris have composed the canon, the ballad, and the piano prelude.

Sidney Pratt, music instructor at Ravenwood, will be featured as soloist on the recorder, a medieval instrument.

Students singing in the program are Anita Beth Anderson, Barry Martin, John Florence, and Roger Winell.

Mr. Gilbert Whitney, vocal instructor at Northwest State, has assisted with the interpretation of the program.

Meadows Picked ISO President

Jim Meadows was elected president of the ISO, the most recently recognized organization on campus.

Other officers elected were: Norma Fletchall, vice-pres.; Bill Prichard, co-treasurer and quad representative; Jerilyn Irwin, co-treasurer and dorm representative; and Bob Johnson, secretary.

To be classified as an organization a group must have over fifty members and must have their constitution ratified by the Student Senate and the Student Faculty committee. Both of these requirements were met by the ISO.

Meadows stated that the aim of the group is to represent the entire independent student body and to provide each student with a more adequate voice in student affairs.

Care Taken To Insure Honest Vote

Today voters will choose the 1962 student senators. The polls will be open from 8 to 4 in the student lounge of Colden Hall. Two candidates will be selected from each class.

Seniors

Senior candidates are Oriana Schmitz, Gene Vogel, Keralyn Bates, Marian Borgesser.

Larry Maher, Pat Dunham, John Morgan and Larry Davis.

Juniors

Junior nominees are Marge Badgett, Wayne Wormsly, Harold Gentry, Earl Boyd.

John Robinson, Jacque Cockrill, Nancy Marley, and Allen Meyer.

Sophomores

Freshman

Freshman hopefuls are Joyce Dorrel, Jane Beavers, Judy Luetjen, Dave Wyckoff, Dennis Dinkla, Kay Pfeiffer, Sherrie Wright, Mary Grantham.

Richard Welch, Steve Croley, Ted Miller and Doug Price.

All efforts are being made by the student senate to prevent any cheating in the coming student senate election of December 20. Rumors have been circulating and precautions are being taken.

Those present at the polls will be so divided that each is a representative of a different organization. At no time will two members of the same organization be allowed to work together.

Also present at the polls will be a faculty member whose duty will be to observe the election proceedings. It is hoped that these precautions will insure the student body of a fair election.

Tower Choir to Tour Des Moines Schools

The annual tour of the Tower Choir, directed by Gilbert Whitney, will be January 22, 23 and 24. Des Moines area schools will be visited.

Music presented by the Choir will include several Civil War and patriotic songs in commemoration of the Civil War Centennial. Selections from the opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors," two religious numbers, and selections from Mendelssohn's oratorio, "Elijah," will be featured.

TIS THE SEASON TO BE JOLLY sings a group of Roberta Hall residents. The young ladies' joviality is caused by two factors; the Christmas spirit, and the Christmas vacation which starts tomorrow at 5 p.m.

What Kind of Gift

A co-ed turned down a ticket salesman with the remark: "I'm sorry that other engagements will prevent my attending your charity concert, but I shall be with you in spirit."

The salesman replied, "That's fine! Where would you like your spirit to sit? We have tickets for fifty cents, a dollar, or two dollars."

The point is that if we want to celebrate Christmas in spirit we must pay the cost.

As someone has said, "What dost thou want? Take it—and pay the price." What is the price of Christmas? "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son. . . ." In other words, God gave himself, and that is the price of Christmas: to give oneself—all that you are, all that you have, and all that you can become. "The gift without the giver is bare."

A sorority in an eastern college once undertook to send gifts to an orphan asylum. Each girl in the sorority wrote to an orphan and asked what he wanted for Christmas. One little girl wrote back that what she wanted most of all was a sister.

One girl in the sorority wrote back, "I will be your sister, and I'll come to see you soon." She kept her word and was all that a sister could be to the little girl thereafter. She gave herself; that was a real Christmas gift.

What kind of seat are you buying for your spirit? What kind of gifts are you giving?

from the Southwest Standard

The college newspaper at Springfield recently ran an article in "The Column" concerning the 1009 students at SWMSC who are slightly deficient grade-wise.

Not to be outdone, the MISSOURIAN would like to enter a bid for the supremacy of NWMSC in that department. It seems that slightly more students here received 'pink slips' this semester than that according to dame rumor.

The STANDARD stated that the 'low grades' were largely caused by the 'swingin' social life at Springfield. Because the reason for the Bearcat bad grades could not be too much social life, we are at a loss for an explanation in our case.

The Stroller

The Stroller shoveled his way into his burrow to clear off his typewriter and click out a few perchance remarks. . .

The snow has caused many difficulties, (especially for those who live off-campus), but one of the brighter sides of this weather is evident when students can slide to classes! One instructor was overheard to say that the attendance in his classes was extra-good and attributed the "full house" to the need of going somewhere to keep warm. . . What a reason to go to class! !

An after-effect of the snowing is shown by campus ceiling leaks. . . Mops have been used in full force in the auditorium and in the women's gym. Social dancing experts (?) were warned not to cha-cha past the foul line.

The onset of winter has brought some humorous things to view. With his masculine outlook, The Stroller wonders who in the world thought up some of those stupid-looking designs in boots. Nearly every conceivable style (?) can be seen on the "tootsies" of our fashion-wise coeds. This makes him wonder what the fashion will be next year. As an afterthought, it seems rather odd that the gals go to extremes to keep their feet warm, and then wear short skirts and long socks to leave their knees bared to the elements! Maybe they enjoy the rosy glow of knees during the brisk days!

The Stroller read with interest the "Soapbox" of last week's paper. . . Those gals are putting out a lot of suds about a problem that does need cleaning up.

Congratulation to the new active frat members! After those many visits to the Den "clubroom" where you received those swats, The Stroller thinks you deserve your pins.

Inquiring Photographer

QUESTION: How capable do you think you are at evaluating the faculty?

Mike Risi, Freshman, Garfield, New Jersey—(R)

I felt that I couldn't give a good evaluation of my instructors because I haven't been in school long enough.

Anne Chick, Junior, Shenandoah, Iowa—(L)

I don't feel that I am qualified to evaluate the faculty with the form we are now using.

Phillip J. Mackey, Junior Bethany, Missouri—(R)

I don't feel as though I should evaluate the faculty, because I allow prejudices and emotions to enter this.

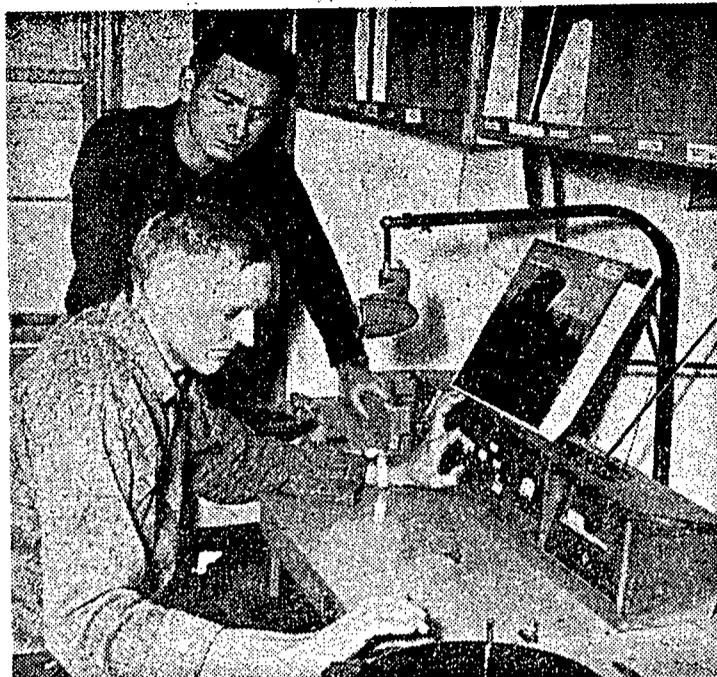

Shirley Henney, Senior Denison, Iowa—(L)

I feel that students know the teaching assets and flaws of their instructors as well as most people on campus.

Course Change In Home Economics

A new course, Family Housing, is being offered next semester by the Home Economics department. It takes up the selection of home buying, considering the exterior, interior and construction.

It can be a co-educational course, said instructor Mrs. Virginia Bouska.

Looking over some of the equipment and checking over the procedure for broadcasting are two members of the campus radio staff. Richard Smith (standing) is the station manager, and Paul Sorenson is one of the disc jockeys.

FOR GOOD MUSIC

Campus Radio Provides Melodies To Study By

Catering to the students who like to study with background music is Radio Station, KDLX, 560, operating from Colbert Hall.

During the week, Monday through Thursday from 7 a.m. to 12 p.m., the station presents background music coupled with organizational news, results of athletic contests, and election results. Richard Smith, station manager, has a classical music program on Sunday evenings, 10-12 p.m.

The broadcasting is done via carrier-current radio system which means the waves are transmitted through electrical wires. This means that the quality of the actual broadcast is usually better than that of other stations because there is little interference.

Although only the quads can receive the station now, the organizations and the sponsor backing the station feel optimistic about the women's halls receiving the station after the beginning of second semester. If the project is completed, the halls would receive the station through a private telephone line with a satellite transmitter located in one of the two buildings.

This also would further the hope that in the future the network could be centrally located, allowing young women to participate in the broadcasting.

The disc jockeys are: Bob Howe, Larry LeCocq, Paul Sorenson, Richard Welch, Bill Nelson.

Paul Kavanaugh, Harry Roberts, Ron Hestand, Ken Price, John Bush, and George Clute.

KDLX, a joint project of the NWMSC Collegiate Radio Club, and Alpha Phi Omega, through the special efforts of Dennis Mathes and Larry White was formally initiated in May of 1960. The sponsor is Mr. Myles Grabau.

Mass Band Clinic To Be Held Jan. 8

Northwest Missouri State College will host the Nodaway County Mass Band Clinic, January 8.

Mr. Ward Rounds, NWMSC band director, will direct this clinic of high school students. Schools participating will be Maryville, West Nodaway, Sheridan, Skidmore, Graham, Northeast Nodaway, South Nodaway, and North Nodaway.

Two rehearsals and a public concert will take place in Lamkin gymnasium. Possible selections for the concert include "American Heritage", "Larghetto", "Folk Song Suite", "River Jordan", "Beguine", highlights from "Unsinkable Molly Brown", and "Semper Fidelis".

Funds Available For Science Equipment

The National Science Foundation has announced a program to provide funds, on a selective and matching basis, for the purchase of scientific equipment for undergraduate instruction.

Funds may be granted to awarding bachelor of science degrees to help them purchase scientific equipment.

Proposals may not exceed $25 thousand. All grants will be on a matching basis with at least 50 per cent of the direct costs derived from non-Federal sources.

Brown Meets and Brings German Student to NWMSC

Quick and deliberate planning enabled Mr. Everett Brown, director of field service, to bring a new student from Karlsruhe, Germany, to Maryville.

Last August Mr. Brown visited Mr. L. C. Skelton, principal of the Karlsruhe American High School and former graduate of Maryville. Mr. Skelton informed Mr. Brown that the grade school principal, Winfred Arthur Nelson would like to send his son, Bob, to school in America.

A talk with Mr. Nelson and an introduction to Bob soon brought immediate action.

At the time Bob was working in a book warehouse, but he set to work immediately making plans to come to America. In less than three weeks Bob arrived in Maryville in time to enroll for the fall semester.

For the past eleven years Karlsruhe, Germany, has been the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Arthur Nelson and their two sons.

Bob participated in many high school activities. He was a center on the basketball team and made the All-European team. An end on the football squad, member of the science club, chess club and serving on the student council were a few of his many activities.

Serving as class vice-president, class president, and receiving an English Award were some of the honors he received.

Bob is a first semester freshman and has not decided on a major, but is taking courses in French and chemistry. He is also a member of the basketball squad.

ACE Party To Be Held Tonight at 7

The annual Christmas party of the ACE will be held tonight at 7 p.m. in the kindergarten room in Horace Mann.

Sue Crone, social chairman, has planned group singing, choral reading, and a social hour for the evening's entertainment.

Giving food and clothing to a needy family is the ACE Christmas project.

Mr. Brown and Bob Nelson on Registration day.

Colhecon Entertained In Sponsor's Home

Mrs. Betty Sawyer, Colhecon sponsor, entertained 30 members of the organization at a Christmas Party in her home, December 13.

The evening was highlighted by a gift-exchange grab-bag and refreshments served by Mrs. Sawyer.

3 ALPHAS ACTIVATED

Barbara Combs, Caye Cross, and Pat Thompson were initiated into active membership of ASA on Tuesday, December 12.

Five Initiated Into Blue Key

Blue Key Initiated five men into membership in the local chapter on Tuesday, December 12.

They were Earl Boyd, Bob Cobb, J. C. Combs, Richard Smith and Lee Weir.

The Blue Key organization honors outstanding male leadership on campus.

Faculty Briefs

A faculty recital was held at 8:15 P. M. Monday night, December 11, in Horace Mann Auditorium. It was the second in a series being given by Northwest Missouri State College faculty members this year.

Mrs. Mary Jane Sandford, pianist, and Dr. John Smay, clarinetist, presented a varied program which included the classical "Concerto In Eb For Clarinet and Piano," by Franz Anton Rossler; the romantic "Grand Duo Concertant," by Carl Maria von Weber; and the contemporary "Concertante," by Norman Dello Joio.

Dr. Leon Miller, dean of instruction, served as consultant for a study group while in Columbia on Dec. 8 and 9. The group was studying "Boards, Responsibilities Regarding Staff and Student Personnel Problems."

Dr. Miller attended the Missouri School Boards Assn. meeting. The general theme was "Improving the Effectiveness of School Boards."

He also conferred with Dean L. G. Townsend, director of summer session, and Dean Henry Bent, dean of graduate school, about the college graduate program.

NWMSC Grad Takes Iowa Education Post

Giles J. Smith, a 1949 Northwest State College graduate, has recently been named assistant consultant of guidance services with Iowa State Dept. of Public Instruction.

Smith, who is also a Horace Mann High School graduate, received a bachelor's degree in education at MSC. He received his master's degree from Colorado State College, Greeley, in 1952.

In his new position, Smith will serve as consultant to schools throughout the state concerning guidance, counseling and testing services.

Informal Mixer Held

Members of Alpha Sigma Alpha and their sponsors, Miss Magill and Mrs. Mauzey, were guests at an informal mixer held by PSE at the Phi Sig house.

Refreshments were provided by Housemother Aldrich. Christmas carols were sung around the fireside.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Former Student Tells Of Women Officers

A former student of NWMSC, Lieutenant Sandra McMillian, was on campus Dec. 6 and 7 as a member of the United States Marine Corps Information Team. She explained the opportunities to college women in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Lt. McMillian attended NWMSC from 1957-59. She was active in forensics, math club, I. A. club, and a member of Pi Kappa Delta. She graduated from the University of Missouri in June of this year and received a commission in the Marine Corps at that time.

The Woman Officer Training program discussed by Lt. McMillian is open to junior, senior, and graduate college students.

Lab School Holds Program

Horace Mann held its Christmas assembly December 20 at 10 a.m.

The traditional program consisted of the presentation of the Christmas story by the students.

A collection of carols was also presented under the direction of Miss Ruth M. Miller. Featured were songs from other countries, which gave a glimpse of the various ways of celebrating the holiday.

Artistic efforts of the children served as decorations. All classes took part in the assembly.

MSC Cagers Trip Jewell In 54-53 Win

Superior rebounding and field goal shooting helped the Northwest State College cage Bearcats jump off to an early lead and hold on to edge William Jewell, 54-53, in a non-conference tilt at Liberty Friday night.

The 'Cats grabbed off 43 rebounds to Jewell's 31 and out-shot the Cardinals from the field, 54.5 per cent to 38 per cent.

Ron Woods, 6-2 freshman whiz, again played a big part in the Bearcat win as he controlled the boards with 17 rebounds and added nine points to the 'Cat attack.

Leading the way for the Bearcats was Jerry Meznarich, senior captain, who fired in 12 field goals and a charity toss for 25 points and game honors. It was the second win against two defeats for MSC, while Jewell is 3-1 for the year.

With Jewell unable to find the range and Woods dominating the boards, MSC raced to a 10-point margin with less than eight minutes left in the first half.

At halftime, the 'Cats led 30-26.

A 5-9 junior guard, Jim Dudley, hit 10 points in the last seven minutes to spearhead the Jewell rally. Dudley finished with 15 points.

Dudley, however, paved the way for the Bearcat win with a foul of hustling Bob Ogden at the 39-second mark. Ogden potted the 'Cats winning point.

Ogden stepped to the line as the partisan crowd roared, and made the winning point for the Bearcats.

Bob Ulrich, 6-5 Card junior, shared team honors with Dudley by tallying 15.

Chalk Talk . . . Bob Cobb

Fresh from decisive wrestling victories, mat mentor H. D. Peterson seemed elated over the prospects of the coming season. Although the Cat grapplers have been somewhat hampered by injuries, Coach Peterson has blended new faces such as Gary Anderson, Charlie Butler, Tom Green and Glen Acksell, with veterans Bill Waugh, Ralph Messerli and Jim Rounds to form the nucleus of a very promising wrestling squad.

MIAA Fares Well

The members of the MIAA conference are holding their own against foreign competition, having won 13 and lost 10 for a very creditable record. As of December 12, the NWMSC Bearcats were the top defending crew in the league, limiting their opponents to 58.0 markers a game.

Mez Leads

Jerry Meznarich seems to have regained his shooting eye after dropping to a season's low of seven points in the Pittsburg game. The 6'5" forward-center leads the Bearcats with a 14.3 average, while gathering 8.7 rebounds per outing.

The Cats most consistent scorer has been freshman jumping-jack, Ron Woods. Woods has averaged 10 tallies a game while pacing the 'Cats in rebounds by hauling in 11 per encounter.

Rounding out the scoring column are Don Drake, chipping in with 8.3 points and 7.3 rebounds per contest; Paul Lizzo, averaging 8.3 markers, and Nick Neira, with a 6.6 scoring pace. Although diminutive in size, Bob Ogden has proved to be a hustling defender.

The Bearcat Basketeers are anticipating the competition in the annual MIAA tournament to be held Dec. 27-29 at Cape Girardeau.

Swim Notes

Enthusiastic swim coach, Guy Bensusan, is preparing to take off the wraps from his aqua-squad by running them through rigorous training procedures and engaging the team in two scrimmage meets. Cat tankers are preparing for a rugged 10 meet schedule this coming season.

State College Wrestlers Post Fourth Triumph

Northwest State College wrestlers rolled to their fourth triumph of the season Friday night by trouncing the visiting Simpson College team from Indianola, Ia., 29-2, Friday.

To date, Dr. H. D. Peterson's grapplers have won three dual meets and the Graceland College tournament. Their next match will be Monday in the MSC gym when they host Wentworth.

The MSC matmen won or tied in all of the eight weight classes in their contest with Simpson, marking up two pins, four decisions, a win by default and a tie.

The results:
123-Pound: Dan Sullivan (M) over Tom Lutz, default.
130-Pound: Jim Round (M)

tied Steve Weeber, 2-2.
137-Pound: Ralph Messerli (M) pinned Dennis Wright in :10 of second period.
147-Pound: Larry Kilmer (M) over Keith Atcheson, 10-6.
157-Pound: Roger Dahl (M) over Jerry Lamonte, 4-0.
167-Pound: Dave Moore (M) over Pat Ray, 6-2.
177-Pound: Charlie Butler (M) over Merrill Firebuth, 3-1.
Heavyweight: Tom Green (M) pinned Roger Fearit in 2:52 of first period.

An ad from the DAILY TAR HEEL, student newspaper at the University of North Carolina: "For sale—one 1949 black Pontiac, straight-8. Extras include: no clutch, dead battery and five parking tickets."

From the Reader's Digest

The mother of a Southern belle, when asked by her daughter, "What do you give a man who has everything?" replied: "Encouragement, dear, encouragement."
